
Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
J. H. HUGHES & CO.
Office—East side Third Street, between Market and Jefferson.

The Union party of Jefferson county will meet in Convention at Brunerstown on Saturday, the 6th of July, to place in nomination a candidate to represent this county in the Legislature.

We are requested to announce Chas. R. Samuel as a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Bullitt county, at the ensuing August election.

Notice.—To the Public and my Friends: W. C. Heston, auctioneer, has reported that I have said that I did not wish Union men to eat or drink in my house. I pronounce him an infamous liar, and dare him to resent it.

W. A. CLARK, Fourth Street.

Flag Raising.—There will be a magnificent Union flag raised on Third street, between Market and Jefferson, this evening about 6 o'clock. Appropriate speeches will be made, and we expect to see a large crowd on the occasion.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Thursday, June 27.—Charles Arp and William Cogrove were charged out of the workhouse.

J. F. Manduppe vs. Henry Schoeffel, peace warrant. Continued.

Henry Wright alias Dr. Partner, stealing a horse from M. Arthur. Continued till Saturday.

Louis Fillmore, assaulting C. Schaffer. Gave bail to answer an indictment.

Sally White and Jacob Hayes, stealing a pair of pants, a watch, and $30 from William Duvall. Continued till to-morrow.

Artemis Longue, drunk. No workhouse in default of bail in $100 for three months.

John Knabe vs. Fred Lampton and wife, peace warrant. Own bond in $50 to answer.

Fred Lampton vs. John Knabe, peace warrant. Own bond in $100 to keep the peace for three months.

CITY COUNCIL.—Both Boards met last night, but did not do little business that would interest our readers. A resolution passed the lower Board providing for a reconstruction of the police system, which makes eleven day and thirty-four night police. It was sent to the upper Board, and referred to the Police Committee.

AGREED STATE OF FACTS.—An agreed state of facts has been filed in the Jefferson Circuit Court in a case of Brady & Davis vs. the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. The action is based upon the refusal of the President of the road to convey for plaintiffs articles pronounced contraband to Nashville. It will be argued on Tuesday, the 24 prox., before his Honor Judge Muir.

LOUISVILLE MALE HIGH SCHOOL.—The commencement exercises of this school are to be held to-night at Masonic Temple. For programme of the evening's entertainment see advertisement.

FEN AREA.—Benefit of Ed. Coon.—This evening Mr. Edwin Coon will take a benefit at Mozart Hall. The bill to be presented is an excellent one, and we expect to see a crowded house.

THE OFFICIAL vote of Christian County is as follows: L. C. Trimble, 898; M. C. Burnett, 853.

USION vs. BUTCHERSTOWN.—The company of Captain Meglery, of the Butcherstown Home Guard, was presented last evening with a superb bag by the ladies of his vicinity. W. G. Heston was the chosen orator on behalf of the ladies, and Captain Meglery responded. After they received their colors, the company paraded the principal streets. They made quite a military appearance, and appear to be well drilled.

RECRUITING.—Captain Ferguson, at his rendezvous, corner of Preston and Market, has received eighty-seven names, and wishes about forty more to fill the company. All the companies that are full in General Rousseau's regiment will go into camp, we learn, on Monday.

AMPHOTYPES, painted and plain photographs, at prices to suit everybody and all Shippingport, at Erol's gallery.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE FEMALE HIGH SCHOOL.—Masonic Temple was crowded to overflowing last night, to witness their interesting exercises; and we venture to assert, that not one in that vast audience left without high appreciation of the value of this institution. Excellent compositions, capital reading, and delicious music, all by the young ladies of the school, combined to make one of the most delightful entertainments of the kind we have ever attended.

The order of exercises was as follows:

- 1. Music—Come Fairies.
- 2. Salutatory Address—Miss Agnes Thomson.
- 3. Music—Spring.
- 4. Essay—One Year Ago—Miss Ophelia Morris.
- 5. Reading—The American Forest Girl—Miss Ellen Mead.
- 6. Music.
- 7. Essay—Early Impressions—Miss Pearson.
- 8. Essay—Garcia—Miss Agnes Nevins.
- 9. Music—Fancies Cull.
- 10. Reading—Sacrifice of Abraham—Miss Sarah Davis.
- 11. Music—Beho.
- 12. Essay—Courage—Miss Jane Spurrier.
- 13. Essay—Still Life—Miss Jennie Bowser.
- 14. Music.
- 15. Reading—The Chase—Miss Lizzie Palmer.
- 16. Music.
- 17. Essay—To-morrow—Miss Emma Gibbons.
- 18. Reading—Meeting of Art and Religion—Miss Sarah Booth.
- 19. Music—Star-sunged Banner.
- 20. Salutatory—Miss Melinda Murray.
- 21. Music.
- 22. Presentation of Certificates by the President of the Board of Trustees, G. W. Morris, Esq.
- 23. Music—Good Night.

Where all were excellent it is not an easy task to discriminate, but we must mention the salutatory by Miss Thompson, the sparkling essay by Miss Gibbons—the excellent reading of Miss Booth and Miss Palmer, and—But why particularize. All evinced talent, taste, and cultivation. The performance throughout must increase the reputation of this already popular school and its able faculty.

The address of President Morris to the graduates was chaste, eloquent, impressive. His announcement that the high schools would be continued was received with a burst of applause that clearly showed the popularity of these schools.

UNITED STATES COURT.—Judge Leavitt was engaged all yesterday afternoon, says the Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday, in hearing an argument in regard to the disposal of certain munitions of war seized by the United States Marshal while on board the steamer Glendale en route for Arkansas and Tennessee. G. P. Williams, of New York, the consignee, by his attorney, T. D. Lincoln, argued that there was not now, neither had there been, any war in this United States, and that, notwithstanding the President's proclamation, it was still lawful to send any goods, even munitions of war, to the South. He also claimed that the order for these goods had been revoked, and that he now desired to sell them to the State of Ohio. The United States District Attorney will be heard in reply this morning. The decision of Judge Leavitt is looked for with great interest. The goods involved in this issue are of a warlike character. They are as follows: Six cannon axles, three cannon tongues, three rammers, one screw, and eight cannon wheels. Two boxes of artillery harness, one mounted brass cannon, one unmounted brass cannon, seven caissons, and ten thousand rifle cartridges. The main question to be decided are: Was it contrary to law to ship munitions of war to the rebel States between the date of the President's proclamation and that of their several ordinances of secession? and, in the eyes of the law, does war exist?

REMARKS, JUNE 25, 1861.

MRS. HARRIS, HUGHES & CO.

Gentlemen: We had the pleasure, a few evenings since, of attending the commencement of the Bardonia Female Institute. We have attended many exhibitions in our life, but never yet have we witnessed such perfect performance as we did on that occasion. The performance commenced by several beautiful songs. The music was exquisite, and, as sung by Miss Melville Atkins, charmed the whole audience. After singing had concluded, we listened to several very beautiful compositions. Our attention was especially directed to an essay, "Gleanings of Light," read by Miss Atkins. It is also expressed, heretofore, very beautifully. Whose heart could not have been touched as those beautiful words fell from her lips? She also was selected from among the many graduates to deliver the valedictory. Such a graceful one in the house, and for several moments had every eye spell-bound. Who could have kept from shedding tears as those beautiful sentences fell from her lips? Ah, yes, every eye in the audience was in tears. After this, we listened to several beautiful pieces of music, and then took our departure to our homes. We shall attend Nashville to-morrow, and you may expect to hear from me.

A SPECTATOR.

ATTENTION, SPECTATORS!—Every member is requested to be on hand at the meeting this evening, June 28, to drill and receive arms and equipments. By order of the Captains.

A meeting of Democratic friends, in New York, which was to take place yesterday, was an object of much concern amongst the ultra Republicans.

Buyers will do well to attend the special sale of goods this morning, at L. Kahn & Co's. The whole lot must be closed out. Go there.

THE EFFECT UPON THE PAPER.—The New York Tribune and Times have been reduced somewhat in size, owing to the falling off in advertising. The New York Courier and Enquirer is to be merged into the World on the 1st of July, having been sold to the latter, it is understood, for $100,000. The Journal of Commerce has been reduced in size to the extent of four columns. All the leading papers in the country have been reduced in size; but they publish as much news as they did before, the contraction being confined to the space vacated by advertisements.

IF Gen. Webb, of the New York Courier and Enquirer, states the fact that, Gen. Scott said to him, very lately, that he would pledge all the reputation he had ever acquired, that on or before the first of May next the rebellion shall be suppressed, and the Union of the States established, with ordinary patience, every good citizen may feel assured that peace and quiet will pervade the country, and business subside into its usual channels before the first day of May, 1862.

NEW VIRGINIA.—The Provisional Government of Virginia is now under way. The Wheeling Intelligence says Gov. Pierpont and Council are hard at work day and night. The United States Court rooms at Wheeling make admirable accommodations for the new Government. The Intelligence boasts that the capital of New Virginia is finer than either the revolutionary State government at Richmond or the Confederate at Montgomery.

THE LIBRARY of the late Reverend Theodore Parker is being removed to the Boston Public Library, he having inquired it to the city. It numbers upwards of 11,000 volumes, among which are many very curious and valuable books. The collection is rich in German classic literature, and in Greek and Latin works of all kinds and dates.

HARRIS' FERRY MAILBOAT.—The machinery lately removed from Harris' Ferry, says the Petersburg (Va.) Express of the 22d, is being rapidly carried through this city to Fayetteville. There were 600 tons to be transported, which will probably require a month's time. The machinery is of the finest and most beautiful quality, and must be immensely valuable.

THE PARIS correspondent of the New York Advertiser states that a regiment of volunteers is being organized in Germany, whose services are to be offered to the Government of the United States. Several French and Prussian officers have determined to leave for America to enter the United States service.

THE CINCINNATI Gazette says that the Collector of that port has seized nearly fifty thousand dollars worth of goods which were intended for the South.

WE learn from Indianapolis that a cavalry regiment of Indiana will in all probability rendezvous at Jeffersonville.

The annual number of deaths in France, where the age of the deceased was one hundred years and upward, has been found to be one hundred and forty-eight.

M. Blondin will receive $1,200 for giving a course of twelve of his wonderful performances at the Crystal Palace, England.

The cost of fitting out troops up to the present time, to the State of Connecticut, including pay, provisions, &c., is over $600,000.

To the People of Logan.

You are aware of the struggle the secessionists have been making to carry your county, and of the efforts they have made to precipitate your State into revolution.

You know they, lawyers, doctors, preachers, hatters, merchants, tailors, grocery keepers, blacksmiths, whiskey sellers, and drunks, and nearly every other class of men, have worked and toiled in this county to carry it for secession. You know how they have, twice since the war, canvassed every nook and corner of your county with their long nasal tones at every appointment. You know, too, how they have deceived the people with false promises, and how they have deceived the people with false promises.
